Description If you use the live search (right top search) in the typo3 backend and press "Show all", not all results are available in result list, if an user has multiple user groups.  Example  Page Tree - Page A Some Content - Page B Some Content  User groups User group A -> DB Mount "Page A" User group B -> DB Mount "Page B"  Scenario A  User Editor X has User group A and User group B  Search for "Some Content" and press "Show All" Only "Page A - Some Content" is visible in result  Scenario B (Switch order of user groups)  User Editor X has User group B and User group A  Search for "Some Content" and press "Show All" Only "Page B - Some Content" is visible in result  Both results should be visible in search result, because Editor X has permissions for both pages. At the moment, only the first user group is respected. The live search autocomplete works correct and show both results.

This has probably been fixed when the search results page was more closely bound to the list module. I just checked it in a current TYPO3 version and I get all the results independent of the order of the user groups.
