Description

The NewContentElementController can't handle configuration like `mod.wizards.newContentElement.wizardItems.common.show = *`, name

This can happen if you install extensions which both change the newContentElement configuration.

Tested with bootstrap_package 7.0.2 which adds configuration `mod.wizards.newContentElement.wizardItems.common.show = *` and attached extension which sets `mod.wizards.newContentElement.wizardItems.common.show := addToList(name)`

[BUGFIX] Correct show configuration in newContentElement wizard

All elements should be shown if the asterisk is part of the show configuration. Due to different configuration possibilities it can happen that the asterisk is not the only value of this configuration.
