Revision b493c31d - 2018-08-10 13:46 - Sybille Peters

[TASK] Add documentation render directories to .gitignore

Add directory created by documentation rendering to .gitignore.

Rendering the docs locally is helpful for checking if it will render correctly on the server. This will create the rendered files in typo3/sysext/*/Documentation-GENERATED-temp/.

Adding this to .gitignore will prevent accidentally adding the generated documentation to a patch.

- Subject changed from Add directory created by rendering of Changelog to .gitignore to Add directories created by rendering of documentation to .gitignore

Rendering documentation with the docker container leaves generated directories. These should be ignored via `.gitignore`.

Example:

cd typo3/sysex/core source <(docker run --rm t3docs/render-documentation show-shell-commands)
dockrun_t3rdf makehtml

creates directory

typo3/sysex/core/Documentation-GENERATED-temp
