Description

Hello Core-Team,

Module "View" -> Selectbox "Columns" -> Little Icon at upper right "Edit this column" -> click "New" to create a new record -> Save. The new record will be placed between first and second record instead of the very last.

nasty. the new button should probably '-1*pid of last tt_content element' in this case to have it inserted as last one. no idea how to easily solve this, though.

"Screenshots help"<sup>TM</sup>

@Stefan, can you please add a screenshot - so everybody knows (including me) what this issue is about. Thanks a bunch! :)

- File 4-Records-List.png added

- File 3-Records-List.png added

Go to 3-Records-List -> Click "New" at upper bar -> Fill in new Title "four" -> Close -> Save and Close -> And you will see 4-Records-List. I expected new record at the very last position.

#5 - 2018-09-06 14:20 - Susanne Moog

- Target version changed from 9 LTS to Candidate for patchlevel

#6 - 2019-03-20 21:58 - Riccardo De Contardi

Still reproducible on 10.0.0-dev (latest master)

#7 - 2020-04-06 11:19 - Riccardo De Contardi

Still reproducible on 10.4.0-dev, the content seems always placed after the first element

#8 - 2021-04-10 21:07 - Riccardo De Contardi

Still reproducible on 11.2.0-dev (latest master), the content seems always placed after the first element
