Description

When translating a record with a image (FAL relation) where allowLanguageSynchronization is set to true in the TCA configuration typo3 throws the exception #1486233164: Child record was not processed and the record gets some new image relation entries

Easiest to Reproduce with the geogringer/news extension

Steps to reproduce:

1. Create a new (news) record, set language to [All]
2. Save
3. Add image as fal relation,
4. Save
5. Set language to Default [0]
6. Save
7. Translate (In the News Administration section)
8. Admire the Exception/CMS/1486233164 page and the new copies of the FAL relation

Tested in Typo3 8.7, 9.5 and 10.0

We got the same problem here with the pages -> media fal field. Trying to translate such a page produces pretty chaotic results by duplicating all image relations.

The same error occurs when we go to the Access module and try to change the access permissions of such a page. (Click for example "New pages" icon)

- The server will answer with a 500 error and the message "Child record was not processed"
- All inline image relations were duplicated.

When setting allowLanguageSynchronization to false, the problems disappear.

I have seen a similar behaviour in some instances and could fix it for my usecases.

Could you try if this patch <https://review.typo3.org/c/Packages/TYPO3.CMS/+62192> works for you as well? It should be applicable to 9.5 as well, not sure about 8, though.

Works with the news extension in 9.5

Can confirm for TYPO3 10.4.9, with 4 languages and pages.media, where allowLanguageSynchronization is true, and sys_file_reference is given for default language only. It occurs right after upgrade from TYPO3 8.7
